PROPOSED CHANGES TO MISSION STATEMENT

Mission:

The Society's mission is:

- A. To foster deeper understanding and appreciation for the history of Sabattus/Webster;
- B. To stimulate and encourage the collection, preservation, and interpretation of Sabattus history through photos, conferences, publications, awards, educational programs, consulting services, and related historical activities;
- C. To coordinate and further the programs of the county's other local historical societies and local historians by functioning as a service organization and communication network;
- D. To cooperate with appropriate individuals, organizations, and institutions on the local, state, or national levels in projects and activities that will promote and sustain a general interest in history; and
- E. To accept donations of money, real property, or other property for the above purposes.
